Brethren:

It is sometimes difficult to imagine that an entire year has waxed and waned since our last installation of officers. To say "Thanks" to the many people who have made this year possible would take hours, but the success we have enjoyed, the many communications and functions we shared, all were made possible by a hard working line of officers, the guidance of our distinguished past masters, the assistance of our Right Worshipful District Deputy Grand Master, the dedication of the various committees, and the fantastic support of the brethren. To all of you I will be forever grateful.

To our incoming master, Br. George Carty, I extend congratulations and my earnest support, and I have no doubt George will discharge his duties as master with skill and assiduity.

And finally, there are those to whom I owe the utmost thanks: Br. Ed Abbott who, with his father, the late Albert Abbott, sponsored me when I petitioned the lodge, my mother for her support and encouragement, my wife, Barbara, for the many hours we spent apart, and most of all my precious daughter, Elizabeth, for the many times she fell asleep waiting for Daddy to come home. I will not pass by them anymore.

Thank you brethren, and may each of you and your families have a most joyous holiday season.

Faternally,

J. ROY OLIVER
Worshipful Master
