

My Brother:

It has often been said that time flies when you are having fun, and this has been the case for me for the past several years, especially this year as Worshipful Master of Shekinah Lodge. I have truly enjoyed this year in the East and I have considered it quite an honor and a privilege. I would like to thank all those members of Shekinah Lodge and the various Lodges for their support. I wish to thank you, not only for your attendance at our meetings, but also for your assistance on the many projects we have had during this year. It really does my heart good to see the progress we have made on our building during this year, and as I have said before, lets keep on going forward.

I would like to thank the Past Masters for their support, I am looking forward to joining your ranks. I wish to thank my Officers, although we had our share of problems with health and family, etc., you were there when you could be and did a real fine job, no one can ask for anymore than that.

To our incoming Master Bro. Len Potter, I extend my congratulations, and offer my support. I know that with the strength we have in our line of Officers for 1982, Shekinah Lodge will have a real good year.

In 1976 R.W. Bro. Norman H. Peek was preparing for his year in the East for 1977, he asked me if I would return to the Chairs, I am real grateful to him for this, and the help he has always been to me and Shekinah Lodge, no matter what the project, Norm will roll up his sleeves and be on the job with you. Thanks for everything R.W. Sir.

Through all of this, if you do not have a good wife on your side such as I have in Ceolia, you would be in big trouble. She has always been there with me, and I appreciate all that she has done. I also thank all those Ladies, who have helped Ceolia through this year with our dinners, etc., a job well done, we will always be thankful.

Finally, I hope you give our 1982 Line of Officers the support they truly deserve, also our Blood Bank and Masonry in general, we will be better for it.

Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Fraternally,

GEORGE CARTY
Worshipful Master
