

My Brother:

December 1983

“. . . The time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.” II Tim. 4:7

Brethren, it hardly seems possible that this is my last message as Worshipful Master of Shekinah Lodge. This year has quickly come to an end and like the spring, new life begins to manifest itself as our Lodge prepares for the ensuing Masonic year of 1984.

In retrospect, I didn't quite accomplish all that I had hoped. However, the words of St. Paul above — is every bit as significant today as they were almost two thousand years ago — give knowledge and comfort that we have done our best and that's what counts.

Brethren this was not just my year; it was yours. Thanks to all of you for giving me the opportunity to serve as Master in 1983. I shall forever be grateful for this honor and privilege. The experience of this year will ever remain a vivid part of my life and memory.

Furthermore, I am deeply grateful to the best line of officers any lodge could ever hope to have. Their help, support, and dedication to duty and Shekinah Lodge will always be remembered and appreciated.

A great debt of gratitude is also extended to the backbone of our lodge — the Past Masters — for their support, experience, and advice in helping me serve this year.

To our District Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Norman H. Peek is extended eternal thanks. Brother, Norm, words alone cannot express my feelings of gratitude to you. It has been an honor to serve with you and under your direction.

Thanx to those that supported our blood drives; to those who attended our communications and social functions; to those who supported our fund raisers; to those that helped complete the building; to those who instructed; to all the committee members; to my wife and the ladies who helped in the kitchen; to those who travelled to other lodges; and to those who lived according to the tenets of Free Masonry.

My brother, I urge you to support our lodge and Free Masonry. Get involved and participate in any of the committees or programs. Don't wait to be asked. Jump right in! You'll be glad you did!! Congratulations to my successor. I wish Brother Hayes much success and a rewarding year as master.

Finally my brethren, on behalf of my wife Katina, my children, Petros and Christina, and myself, I wish you and yours a JOYOUS CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY, HEALTHY, and PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

May God's richest blessings be yours, now and forever. Amen

Fraternally & Gratefully,

PAUL N. PANTELIS, Worshipful Master
