Dear Brethern;

The vital part that Masonry has had in the creation and preservation of those ideals which account for our country's greatness should be viewed with pride and appreciation by every Mason.

But there is that time in history when we who are the inheritors of greatness must serve with the same zeal and determination which characterized those whom we of today honor and respect.

As we look back into the past, we are reminded of men such as George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, and Paul Revere, who were outstanding Masons and Patriots. Most of us cannot attain their stature, but we can best perpetuate their greatness by being active in the effort to preserve for posterity all that they worked for, fought for, and died for.

The present is your responsibility. Are you a Mason willing to accept this challenge? If so, support your lodge. You are the most vital part of Masonry.

You cannot do a kindness too soon, because you never know how soon it will be too late.

Fraternally,

WILLIAM C. PARR, JR., Worshipful Master
