

Dear Brother:

January 1984

I sincerely hope that each of you had a pleasant holiday season. I extend to every-one my hope that the coming year be one of happiness.

I thank Shekinah Lodge for the opportunity to serve as Worshipful Master. I would like to also thank my installing team – R.W. Norman Peek, W.B. J. Douglas Abdill, and W.B. George Carty, and all those who attended my installation. It will be a night that I will long remember and cherish.

I congratulate W.B. Paul Pantelis for his year as Worshipful Master. I wish him a long and active masonic career.

One of my projects this year is to improve Masonic knowledge in our lodge as well as in the community. I hope to do this by establishing a Masonic Library in our lodge and making a donation of Masonic books to our public library. If any of the brethren have any Masonic books that you would donate or lend the lodge, we would greatly appreciate them.

The Masonic Blood Bank will be at Vineland Lodge No. 69 on January 11th. There is no greater gift we can give than the gift of life. Please support your blood bank.

New Years is a time for each of us to make resolutions for the coming year. Let us all resolve to practice those masonic virtues which have made our fraternity great. Support your lodge and practice masonry every day.

Habits are strong and hard to break. Make it a habit to attend lodge and reap the fellowship. I hope to greet you in lodge.

Fraternally,

ROBERT J. HAYES, Worshipful Master

GRAND MASTER
Most Worshipful Edward R. Woods
