March 1988

Brethren:

Brotherhood is defined as men having one all-mighty parent and existing to promote the same interests, work and common ideals.

Our fraternity, in its existence of many years, has flourished by sharing those same interests and ideals and in overcoming the challenges that have presented themselves to us.

The challenge that faces us today, can be overcome by discovering and enlarging the word 'Brotherhood'.

I would implore every member to attend Lodge whenever possible to bring about this work which has to be done.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

GARY LAWSON
Worshipful Master
