

Dear Brother:

September 1983

Welcome back from our July - August recess. I hope everyone had a good summer. Though labor was suspended for this period, there were some activities in progress. By the time you receive this notice, the physical appearance of our Temple will have been altered – through the addition of the canopy over the doorway and stairs. A sign indicating the building is Shekinah Lodge should also be in place. The completion of this project will bring to fruition the total building plans for the lodge. Many thanks to our trustees, building committee, benefactors, Ways and means committee, and all those who supported the June Sub-sale which provided a small portion of the funds for this dual project.

Would also like to say THANK YOU to:

1. Your Officers – whose dedication, support, and quest for excellence have made Shekinah one of the best ritualistic lodge in the state. I'm proud of our line of officers and would urge each of you to attend our communications and show them your support.
2. R.W. Richard Jervis for his outstanding efforts as chairman for the successful bus trip to Washington in July.
3. W.B. Joe Reed for his hospitality and untiring efforts in organizing the District picnic at Parvin State Park in June. There were not very many in attendance – but everyone there enjoyed themselves. I'm happy to report Shekinah won its softball challenge with Neptune. It was as easy match since no one from Neptune showed up. They must have heard about Norm's SLO-BALL.
4. All the brethren who attended the Master's Church service; and to the Lodge for its $25.00 donation to the church.

Aside from attending our communications this month, I would very much appreciate your support in two other activities. The Masonic Bloodmobile will be at Vineland Lodge on Thursday, September 8 beginning at 6:00 P.M. PLEASE, support this visit with your time and blood. Consider this – it costs you nothing to donate your blood – but to someone who receives it, it could be EVERYTHING – even life.

On September 18 at 2:30 P.M. a church service will be held at the N.J. Memorial Home in Vineland. This will be the second masonic hospital visitation to the home this year; and attended by our Grand Master, M.W. Edward R. Woods. Brethren here is a chance to put your masonry to work outside the lodge. Please plan to attend and bring the family with you.

Looking forward to greeting you all again from the East.

Fraternally,

PAUL N. PANTELIS, Worshipful Master
