

Brethren,

1991: LOOKING BACK

Every Master, at the time of his installation sets forth certain goals that he would like to attain during his year. I would like to take a moment to recap the year I experienced as your Worshipful Master. Understand any success that was realized is most certainly shared with and attributed to a very supportive line of officers, chairmen and brethren.

In January a combined District Leadership Seminar was held at Shekinah with approximately 175 masons attending to learn more of our fraternity and leadership capabilities.

February saw meetings with the various committee chairmen and officers to put the year's plan of action into motion. Of course Master Masons Night as guests of Shekinah Chapter No. 82 O.E.S.

March came in slow but went out like a lion with the Scholarship Committee selecting the recipient of the 22nd District's Scholarship Award; Meetings with the Memorial Day Parade Committee, The Official Visits and rehearsals for the degrees and District Lodges of Instruction.

April was quite busy, Phoenixville visited us on the 6th; meetings were held with The American Legion for the parade on Memorial Day; The Grand Lodge Annual Communication in Wildwood; The Grand Lodge of Instruction; Our Golf Outing at Centerton along with the usual District Meetings and Lodge rehearsals.

May bloomed with our Divine Service and Breakfast; The trip to Longwood Gardens; The Memorial Day Parade with the Grand Master and his staff joining with us and our Annual Awards Night/Feast of Sts. John Banquet.

June opened with the Child I.D. Program; saw the reception of three newly raised brothers into Shekinah's membership and closed with a Pool Party for the officers and committee chairmen.

The summer had us busy going to the Phillies and Mets game and lending a hand ushering at the National Babe Ruth Baseball World Series Tournament held in Millville.

September gave the officers and Brother Howard Young an opportunity to "Test The Waters" in their advance stations as I was away on vacation. An opportunity, I might add was well fulfilled.

October was active also with a Dinner/Theater trip to the Camden-Philadelphia area to enjoy both a fine dinner and the play "les Miserables". A job well done by Wor. Bro. Bob Hayes who chaired the project. Later in the month we received our Brethren from Phoenix Lodge No. 75, Phoenixville, PA. on their visit to Shekinah for their Annual oyster and ham dinner.

R.W. JERRY SODERBERG, D.R.I.

November showed us a very successful Past Masters Night and our Annual Ladies Night held at Cohanzick Country Club, both chaired by R.W. Bro. Norm Peek.

Along with this was a portion of the History of Shekinah Lodge which was given at each Regular Communication throughout the year by Wor. Bro. Charles Finch and some clarification and explanation of some point in Masonic Tradition or Rule, so I think you can see Shekinah has experienced a reasonable active year and as I mentioned earlier successful only because of dedicated and interested members who came back with an affirmative answer when responding to the call.

Sadly, I must add without the attendance of our late departed Brethren who answered to the call of our Supreme Grand Master of the Universe:

MEMBER	RAISED	DIED
Bro. John S. Whitaker	4-26-46	1-1-91
Bro. Alfred Thomas	3-21-47	1-25-91
Bro. John S. Wolf	6-23-48	3-7-91
Bro. George M. Satterlee	10-25-74	6-28-91
Bro. Ralph W. Whilden	4-18-52	8-14-91
Bro. Howard E. Frantz	6-24-27	8-23-91
Bro. Henry V. Rosypal	5-30-75	9-2-91

All visits to the widows of these brethren have been made on behalf of the lodge and expressions of sorrow were extended to them and the immediate family members by myself and our wardens.

So, it's now over and I again feel richer for the experience. Challenging and trying: Yes, nerve wracking: Absolutely, rewarding: By all means, Would I do it again? No.!

LOOKING AHEAD TO 1992 . . .

I wish Brother Howard and his line of officers every success in the coming year and I can assure the members he has the qualities and capabilities of being a good Master.

An now I take my seat on the sidelines and would be most happy to greet you in lodge in the coming months.

Fraternally,
RON
