Brethren:

“You are no longer strangers — but you are fellow — members of the household of God —.” Ephesians 2:19 (RSV)

I recently read an article by Sue Monk Kidd concerning a discussion she had with a group about how much darkness there was in the world. War, hunger, hate, homelessness. One woman asked “When will it end?” Her question reminded Sue of the rabbi who asked his students a question. “When does night end and day begin?”

One student asked, “Is it the moment you’re able to perceive the difference between an olive tree and a fig tree?”

“No,” said the rabbi. “That’s not it.”

Is it the moment you can tell the difference between a sheep and a dog?” asked another.

The rabbi shook his head. “No, that’s not it either. Rather it is the moment you look at the face of a stranger and recognize that it is really the face of your brother.”

Perhaps that is when night ends in our world and day begins. Today, if we practice seeing the strangers who come our way as brothers and sisters, I suspect we might find a new attitude dawning in our life. And who knows, maybe there will even be a bit more light in the world.

— and God said, “let there be light” —

Fraternally,
HOWARD YOUNG
Worshipful Master

Friend:

I have been asked to request your assistance regarding a matter that is emotionally appealing.

I have been informed there is a young man in Florida named Craig Shergold who is seven years old and suffering from terminal cancer. It is his dream to be included in the Guinness Book of Records for the largest number of business cards ever to be collected by one person.

Would you please send one of your business cards to him at the address set forth below and also send a request similar to this letter to ten of your friends, along with copies of all pages attached, asking that they also send Craig a business card and keep the request chain going. Obviously speed is of the essence.

Please forward the cards to:

Craig Shergold
