

My Brethren, it is with a sad heart that I have to inform you of the death of Most Worshipful Brother Harold D. Elliot II, Past Grand Master.

Most Worshipful Brother Elliot was a very popular man, not only in Masonry, but also outside of it. He was also a very busy man. He was much in demand as a guest speaker and served on many Boards of Directors and Committees. He enjoyed Masonry and life, and was always friendly and outgoing to all he met. He was a very busy Mason. He belonged to just about all of the Subordinate Bodies in Masonry and was the equivalent of Grand Master in almost all, if not all, of them. He enjoyed visiting Lodges and remained active in the various Masonic Bodies. He was an excellent speaker and enjoyed speaking about and discussing Masonry with anyone who wanted to. He was an educator by vocation and he enjoyed researching and discussing Masonic history. Most Worshipful Brother Elliot will be sadly missed.

His death provides us all with an important lesson. We are told many times in many different ways that sooner or later we all must die. In the bustle of our busy lives, we don't think about this, in fact, we usually only ponder this when a family member or friend has died. When someone we know dies, it is like a jolt that causes us to think about our mortality. We are told in the Funeral Service to, "improve the present moment ...". I think that this means that we should take advantage of the fact that we are focused on the death of our loved one and examine our lives to determine if we are living as we should, and if we are not, we need to make the necessary changes so that when our time comes, we will go to the, Celestial Lodge above, where the Supreme Architect of the Universe resides.

Brethren, let us now ponder our lives and our mortality, that we may correct that which is defective in ourselves. Let us provide an example to those who know us, that they may learn from us, and perhaps examine and improve their own lives. Let us all endeavor to, "live respected and die regretted", like Most Worshipful Brother Elliot.

Fraternally,
BRIAN A. THOMAS, WM
