

Brethren;

What makes Masonry different from all other fraternities? There are many organizations one may be a member of, but none can compare to the Masonic Fraternity. Most are of the social order, gathering members to meet and enjoy each others company, regardless of ones believe. They may be believers or they may not believe in a Supreme Being. As Masons we are believers of a Supreme Being. With this we learn to improve our outlook of life by the teachings which Masonry offers. Recalling the Fellowcraft degree, "the attentive ear receives the sound from the instructive tongue", which binds us one to another so that when in need we respond to those who call upon us for assistance. This my Brother is what Masonry is about. The bonding of moral men to assist one another.

Fraternally,

Milton Moroz, Worshipful Master

Precepts of Modern Masonry by Ruther W. Osborn 1875

Be Just	Because equity sustains the human race.
Be Good	Because goodness enchains all hearts.
Be Kind	Because kindness secures affection.
Be Grateful	Because gratitude is the food that nourishes liberality.
Be Modest	Because pride is offensive to thy fellow being.
Pardon Injuries	Because vengeance perpetuates hate.
