

January 2003

My Brother,

First I would like to thank you for allowing me to serve as master of our lodge for the coming year. The standard that has been previously laid down for me is one that I will do my best to meet.

During the coming year the officers and I have plans that we hope will improve the lodge. The plans will only work with your aid and support. Together we can all make our lodge better and stronger.

THE MASON'S CHARACTER

Freemasonry has always been true to its name, and the real Mason is the builder of the temple of his own character. Its mission is to furnish high ideals for the individual, that may be reflected in his actions towards his fellow men. The Masonic ideal teaches that moral and spiritual attainments are far more important than the material and physical.

- anon

The building of our own temple is one of the first lessons we are taught in Masonry. We must reinforce these lessons we are taught. To do this we must have Masonic communication with our brethren. By spending time with our brethren we will find good examples of the precepts of our Fraternity to model our lives by.

Fraternally
