

June 2006

My Brother,

Summer is steadily approaching, and we "Are about to quit this sacred retreat of friendship and virtue, to mix again with the world. A midst its concerns and employments, forget not the duties you have heard so frequently inculcated and so forcibly recommended in this lodge. Be diligent, prudent, temperate, discreet." Brothers, take time and enjoy your family and friends during the summer. Remember the lessons learned in Freemasonry and the application of its sublime principles have guided and directed you down the road. As we part for the summer break, reflect upon your commitments and the influence of Freemasonry on your life.

Fraternally,
H. Stu Harris, IV
Worshipful Master
