

March 2005

Brethren;

Being of the older generation I hear that I should join the younger generation in thought of the times. Yes, times have changed and so must we. But, what changes should we tolerate? Should we overlook many of the things that are considered no big deal such as speeding, overindulgence to alcohol, petty crimes etc.? Brethren, what is right is right and what is wrong is wrong! There is nothing in between. Should we overlook those infractions in our members, or those considered for membership? Do we look to the lowest common denominator, or do we rise to the highest denominator, in our teachings and actions?

Fraternally,

Milton Moroz, Worshipful Master

“Freemasonry embraces the highest moral law, and will bear the test of any system of ethics or philosophy ever promulgated for the up-lift of man.”
