

May 2004

My Brother,

As we enter into May, I would like to take this time to remember our fallen heroes. The brave and selfless actions of our military personnel, both past and present are not to be forgotten. When you watch the news you see almost daily our valiant men and woman in harms way and an increasing number are paying the ultimate sacrifice for their country.

From its infancy, this great nation that we live in has been built on the backs of our courageous Soldiers, Airmen, Sailors and Marines. Some of them may have volunteered to serve and others may have not, but either way they served and should be proud of it. Whether they served in peacetime or at war, overseas or at home, active duty or in the National Guard it is because of them that we enjoy our way of life.

As I finish this message to you this month, I ask that before you eat that delicious meal, before you take your family on that fun vacation, or just pursue your normal activities of life, you reflect on how you have gained these freedoms....they didn't come free, and at times the price has been high.

Fraternally,
Belford J. Riggins
Worshipful Master

YOUR BROTHER, YOUR LODGE, YOUR FREEMASONRY
ENJOY IT!
